

The Bahá'í Faith

Throughout history, God has sent to humanity a series of divine Educators whose teachings have provided the basis for the advancement of civilization. Bahá'u'lláh, the latest of these Messengers, explained that the religions of the world come from the same Source and are in essence successive chapters of one religion from God.

Bahá'ís believe the crucial need facing humanity is to find a unifying vision of the future of society and of the nature and purpose of life. Such a vision unfolds in the writings of Bahá'u'lláh.

His teachings address the:

- Oneness of God and religion
- Oneness of humanity
- Absolute freedom from prejudice
- Inherent nobility of the human being
- Progressive revelation of religious truth
- Development of spiritual qualities
- Integration of worship and service
- Fundamental equality of the sexes
- Harmony between religion and science
- Centrality of justice to all human endeavours
- Importance of education

Bahá'ís actively work towards their own spiritual and intellectual growth and for the betterment of society.
